

15th Annual Bluegrass Region
Grandparents & Relatives as Parents Conference
Thursday, March 16, 2017
Clarion Hotel

Dear Business Leader:

The Bluegrass Regional Grandparents & Relatives Raising Children Conference or GAP conference provides information, education, and support to grandparents and other relatives caring for children and promotes awareness of the legal, financial, psychological, and social issues to the attendees who will hear regional and national experts. This year's event is scheduled for Thursday, March 16, 2017 at the Clarion Hotel in Lexington, KY.

The audience will include 400+ individuals:

- Grandparents and other Relatives assuming primary care of children, either court awarded or independent means
- Professionals, healthcare providers, lawyers, and social workers providing caregiving services and support to grandparents and other relatives
- Interested university students in related caregiving, social work fields and community minded citizens

We will provide Continuing Education Credits for Social Workers and we will apply for Continuing education for Attorney's and Family Resource Specialists

A limited number of sponsorships are available. Benefits include:
